Gentlemen,

From time to time in Prepublication, we receive interviews from the society of former special agents.

We have an interview here that describes work with Russian espionage in the 1960's and 70's, as well as efforts to gain information from Russian sources.

My Section Chief has asked we reach out to counterintelligence to ensure you find no objectionable information in the interview.

In an effort to determine the correct POC for this, Is this be something you would both provide input on? If not, direction to the correct POC would be much appreciated.

Thanks for any help you can provide.
